

Media Player

Joanna Koseff, Robby Brosman, David William Phillips III, Thomas Phan, Christine Hill, and Andrew Khaw

Choosing a TV show or Movie

Screen One:
The user clicks on the image or title of the TV show they would like to watch.

Screen two:
The user clicks on the episode they want to view.
*This is only applicable for TV shows

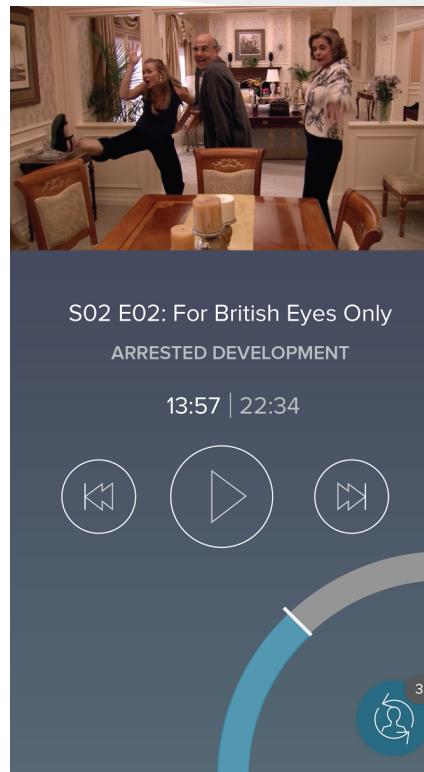

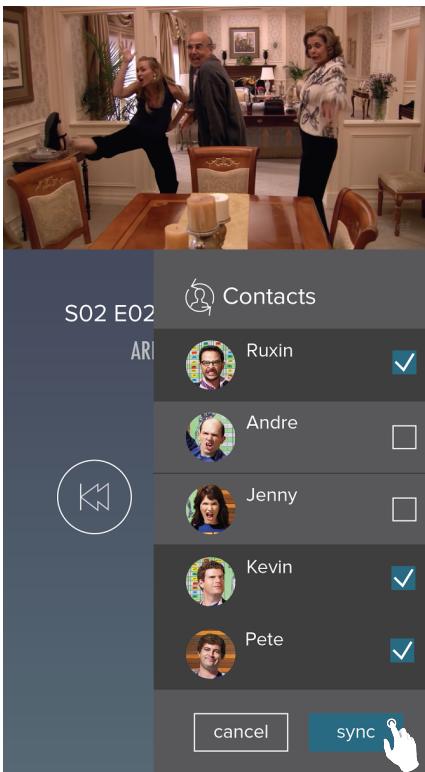

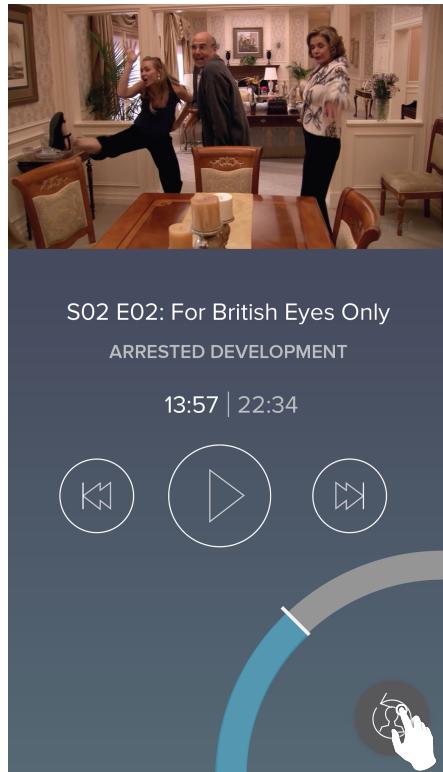

Screen three:
Contains all the media controls: play, pause, fast-forward, rewind, the duration of the movie, and how far you are into the movie.

Playing a Video

The user can click on any part of the screen to play/pause the video. The user can slide through the orbital video duration to fast-forward or rewind the video

Syncing Video w/ Friends

All users using the sync function can watch a video at the same time, and has the ability to use any video controls

Screen 1:
The user clicks on the sync button to choose friends to sync with

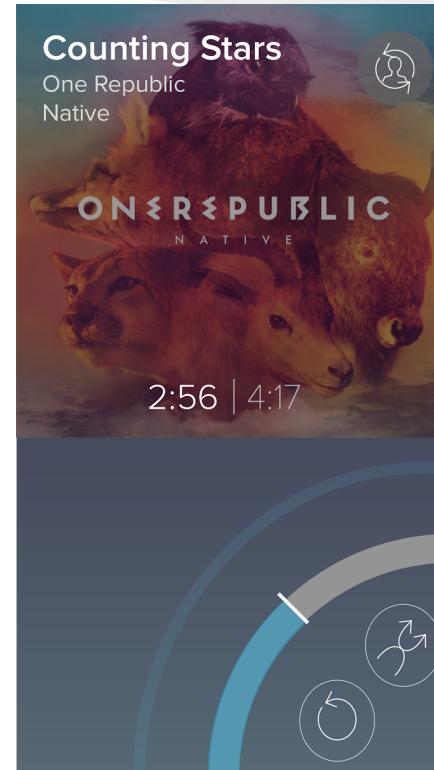

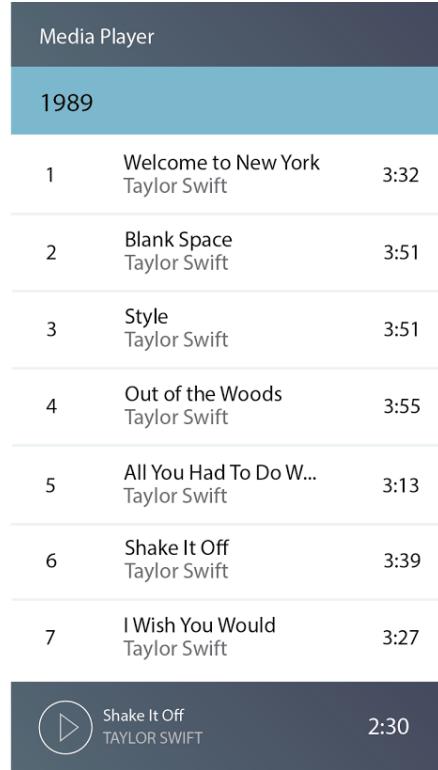

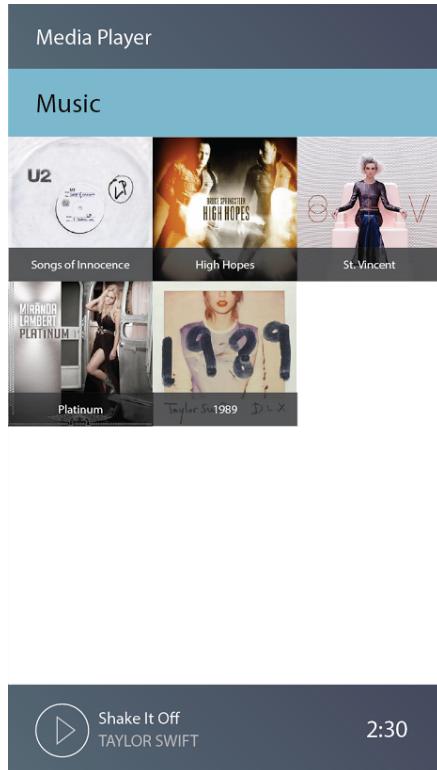

Screen 2:
The user chooses friends to sync with

Screen 3:
Shows that the video is currently synced and displays how many friends are currently in the sync.

Horizontal View - Video Player

Choosing a Song

Screen One:

The user clicks on the image or title of the album they want to listen to

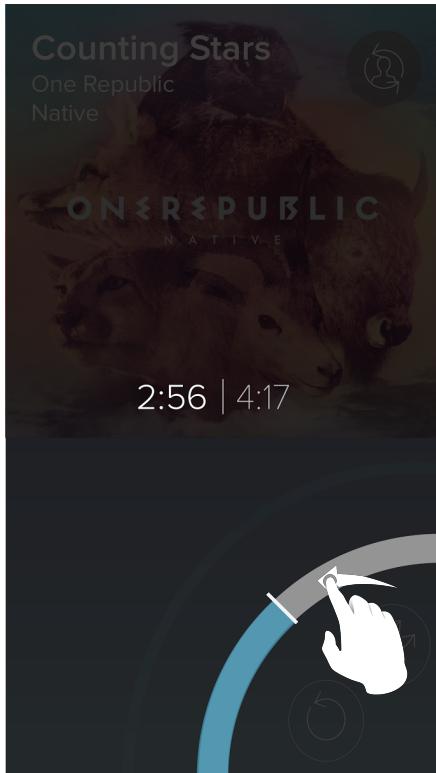

Screen two:

The user clicks the song they want to listen to

Screen three:

Contains all the music controls: play, pause, fast-forward, rewind, repeat, and shuffle

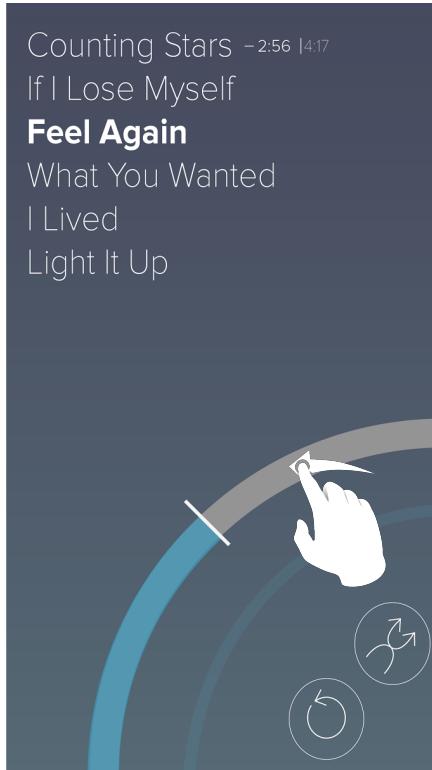

Fast Forwarding or Rewinding a Song

The user can slide the duration bar to the time of the song that they want to listen to.

The dial and the text-display indicates what part of the song the user is currently on.

Scrolling Through a Playlist

Counting Stars - 2:56 | 4:17

If I Lose Myself

Feel Again

What You Wanted

I Lived

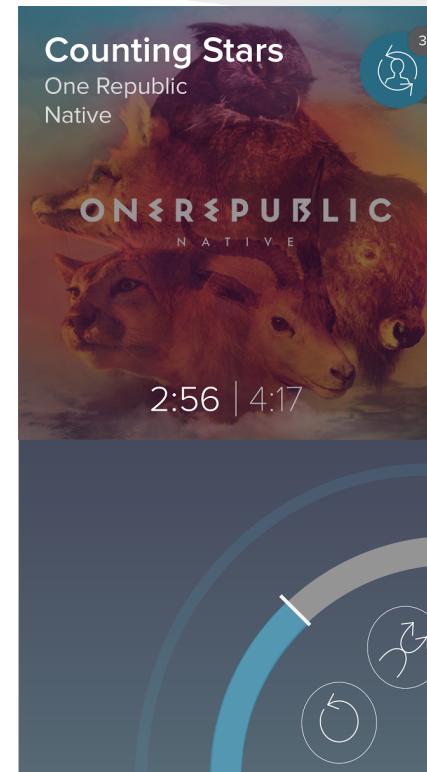

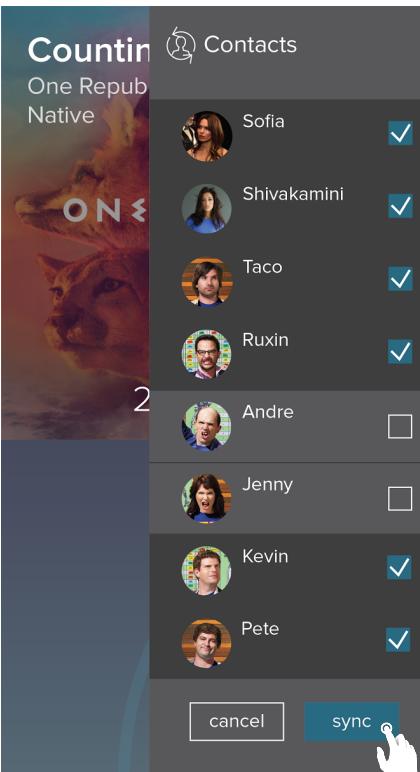

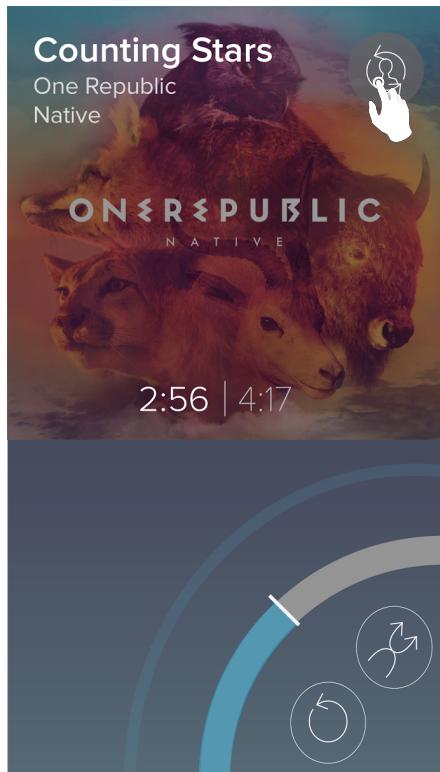

Light It Up

The user can slide the orbital bar to the song they want to change

The dial and the text-display indicates what song they want to choose.

*The inner orbit is smaller and more opaque to show that the user is currently switching songs. When the user is done selecting the song, the outer orbit is smaller and opaque.

Syncing Music With Friends

All users using the sync function can listen to a song at the same time and has the ability to use any audio controls

Screen 1:
The user clicks on the sync button to choose friends to sync with

Screen 2:
The user chooses friends to sync with

Screen 3:
Shows that the song is currently synced and displays how many friends are currently in the sync.